

Terrific Tips for Helpers

Children are active. These simple words help them learn to describe actions. Use the words to describe what you see. Use the words to describe what you are doing. Use the words to describe what you want to do. Use the words to describe what you are thinking.

Start Simple

Start with the simple words that a child can use to describe what they are doing. Use the words to describe what you are doing. Use the words to describe what you want to do. Use the words to describe what you are thinking.

Go It On

Once the child has learned the simple words, use the words to describe what you are doing. Use the words to describe what you want to do. Use the words to describe what you are thinking.

pack

pull

scrub

paint

push

see

paste

rake

set

pick

read

sew

plant

ride

shout

play

row

show

point

run

sing

pour

sail

sit

